

Rubber Fish Ramp

Engineered for performance. Designed for nature.

Rubber Fish Ramps help aquatic species move up into perched or overhanging structures like culverts. Typically used in conjunction with Mussel Rope.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

- Material: 3mm UV-stable reinforced PVC belting
- Color: Black
- Length/Width: Customisable to suit site requirements
- Fixing: Masonry anchors or TEK screws depending on structure material

KEY ATTRIBUTES

- Enhances climbing ability for fish
- Low-cost and simple to retrofit
- Minimal impact on water flow
- Flexible and easy to install
- Durable in high energy water conditions
- Low maintenance over time

INSTALLATION OPTIONS

- Suitable for: Perched culverts, box culverts, culvert aprons, weirs
- Compatibility: Can be alone or combined with Mussel-Rope and/or FlexiBaffles
- Support: ATS Environmental offers site assessments, installation, and staff training